Notes

- Persons who are the holders of a full medical card are exempt from the Income Levy.
- Persons who are the holders of the Health Amendment Act Card are entitled to the same exemption rights as a holder of a full medical card.
- UK and Northern Ireland Medical Cards are only applicable where they are accompanied by certification that the recipient is entitled to full exemption from prescription charges also.
- GP Visit Cards do not qualify the holder for the Income Levy exemption.
- The exemption will only be applied if the completed form is accompanied by a photocopy of the valid medical card.

The completed form and the copy of the medical card should be returned to the Finance Section of State Examinations Commission at the address shown above.
