7. Terms and conditions

Appointment as an Examiner is a contract for service and is subject to the following conditions:

- You must give your full-time attention to the work during the marking period, which is usually about 26 days from the date of the conference. Conferences are expected to be held between 9 June and 10 July 2020.
- All payments to you will be made through Paypath, an electronic money transfer system. We will collect your bank details later. We cannot make payments any other way.
- Appointment as Examiner in any given year does not confer the right to an appointment in subsequent years.
- If you fail to comply fully with our Instructions or if you act in a way that jeopardises the security or integrity of the examinations or the performance of the candidates, you may be dismissed and may be refused any future appointment. If you are dismissed, you will have no claim whatsoever against us for remuneration or expenses.
- Travelling expenses and subsistence allowances will be paid in accordance with Department of Finance regulations. Further information is available from the Information for Contract Staff Section of www.examinations.ie.
- Appointments will be issued on an ongoing basis until 10 July 2020.
- You are not eligible for appointment if you have taken early retirement under Strand 1 of the Early Retirement Scheme for teachers or if you are on paid or unpaid sick leave, on suspension or on administrative leave, or if, at the time of the conference or during the marking period, you are on paid statutory maternity leave.
- Applications from teachers in receipt of disability pension will be considered on receipt of a completed medical report form. This form is available on request from (090) 6442735/6.

8. Declaration of applicant

I hereby declare that the information I have given is correct and that I will notify the State Examinations Commission (SEC) of any changes to it. I acknowledge that the SEC reserves the right to verify all of the information provided, including my qualifications. If appointed, I will, to the best of my ability, follow all instructions issued by the SEC or by anyone authorised by the SEC to issue such instructions.

9. Submission and consideration of applications

You must sign the above declaration. If you complete the form electronically, then you must print out a copy and sign it before submitting. Please send the completed form to Examiners Section, State Examinations Commission, Cornamaddy, Athlone, Co Westmeath to reach us not later than 14 January 2020. Postage must be paid. We will continue to accept applications after this closing date, but late applications will only be considered if vacancies remain after offers of appointment have been made to all suitable applicants whose applications were received before the closing date. If you do not include your PPSN or if you otherwise fail to complete the form properly, we will return it for completion. This may result in your application being late. We will consider all applications fairly and impartially, and canvassing will disqualify.

An Irish version of this form is available on request.

Data Protection

The State Examinations Commission is a registered data controller with the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner. The personal data you provide in this application form will be processed in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Acts.

We will process this data for the purpose of administering your application to a contract staff position as an examiner with us. If we appoint you as an examiner, we will process your personal data in the administration of your contract with us. This includes administering your assigned role and duties. We will also use the data to make payments to you in respect of your contract. We will also retain your details and may use them from time to time to contact you to advise you of recruitment opportunities with us. Our Data Protection Notice is on our website at www.examinations.ie/data-protection/.
