STATE EXAMINATIONS COMMISSION

PRESS RELEASE

JUNIOR CERTIFICATE RESULTS 2007

57,000 students to receive Junior Certificate Results

12th September 2007

Statements of provisional Junior Certificate examination results for 57,395 candidates will be in all post-primary schools today, Wednesday, 12th September 2007. Over half a million individual grades in 26 different subjects are being delivered to the 28,495 female and 28,900 male candidates in this year's examination. Students can also access their results through the on-line examination results service on www.examinations.ie from 4 PM today.

The Chairman of the State Examinations Commission (SEC), Mr. Dick Langford, sent his congratulations to all of the students receiving results today and to their parents and teachers. He expressed the hope that they would continue with their studies and that the Junior Certificate outcomes would assist them in making informed future choices. Mr. Langford sent special congratulations to the 1,256 re-entrants to education who entered for this year's Junior Certificate examination through various education schemes including the Vocational Training Opportunities Scheme and the Back to Education Initiative.

The Chairman commended the staff of the SEC, examination superintendents, examiners, school managements, teachers, school staff and all others involved in the examination process on their hard work and commitment in the conduct of the 2007 examinations.

The overall numbers sitting the examination have decreased by 0.7% on last year while the proportion of candidates who are re-entrants to education has remained relatively steady at 2.2% of the total cohort.

Appeals

Applications for review of Junior Certificate examination results, which must be made through the candidate's school, should be made so as to arrive in the State Examinations Commission no later than 5 PM on Friday, 28th September 2007. The fee for this service is €30.00 per subject which will be refunded in the event that a result is upgraded. The closing date will be strictly observed. Applications will be accepted only from a school authority. It is planned to post the results of the appeals in the week ending 9th November 2007.

Marking Schemes

The official marking schemes in all subjects will be published on the website, www.examinations.ie, in the coming days.

Chief Examiners' Reports

Chief Examiners' Reports provide a review of the performance of candidates in the examinations and contain detailed analysis of all aspects of the examining process. They also contain recommendations for teachers and students and generally include examples of candidates' answers. Reports are published in a selected number of subjects and programmes each year. Following the 2007 examinations, Chief Examiners' Reports will be published in the following Junior Certificate subjects: Business Studies; Geography; Hebrew Studies; Art Craft & Design; and Classical Studies. The reports will be published in 2008.

On-Line Results Service.

Candidates will be able to access their results on the Internet from 4 PM today, Wednesday 12th September 2007. Access to the service, which requires the use of an examination number and a unique candidate Personal Identification Number, is through www.examinations.ie. This service is not intended to replace the valuable results service and advice provided to students by schools at results issue time. The PIN and Examinations numbers required to access the service have already been issued.
