SECTION 6. INDIVIDUAL SPECIAL CENTRE

Candidates approved reasonable accommodations will be assigned to special centres in line with the general conditions set out in Section 5.5 of the Instructions for Schools. The SEC will assign candidates to shared special centres unless the specific accommodation granted warrants an individual special centre or if the candidate has a contagious medical condition. In very exceptional circumstances, the SEC will consider a request from a school to assign a candidate to an individual special centre. If the school authority considers that there are exceptional circumstances which warrant the assignment of this candidate to an individual special centre then the following section should be completed setting out the basis for the request. Absolute discretion on the establishment of special centres rests with the SEC and schools, candidate and parents should be aware that this request may be refused if the SEC does not consider that the request is justified.

Note that, as part of the quality assurance programme, further evidence of need and history of learning support may be sought from the school.

LATE APPLICATION FOR REACTIVATION OF ACCOMODATIONS GRANTED AT JUNIOR CERTIFICATAE.

The following accommodations were granted to the above candidate at the Junior Certificate and I hereby apply for their reactivation for the 2019 Leaving Certificate examination. I testify that the conditions which gave rise to the granting of these accommodations still exist and that the candidate is receiving appropriate interventions as part of a continuum of support.

Applications on behalf of candidates with the writing difficulties associated with dyspraxia or dysgraphia may be made on learning difficulty grounds (this section of the form) or on physical difficulty grounds (section 5) depending on the nature of the candidate's difficulties. Refer to section 9.4 of the "Instructions for Schools" for further details.
